

DAY TRIP TO FRANCE

Saturday 18th April 2009

Leaving EG 6.20am, estimated return 8.00pm

OK we're on! But as ever, the booking won't be confirmed until they've got our money, so if you'd like to go please complete the form below, make cheque payable to Trinity Methodist Church, and hand to Julia H ASAP. Cost: £25 per person (sorry no child discount), plus optional travel insurance of £5/adult or £2.50/child under 16yrs, details of cover available on request.

We need a minimum of 40 people to keep the price down to £25/pp and can take a maximum of 49 so do mention to friends, places will be allocated on first come-and-paid, first-served basis.

A full itinerary is on its way, but as previously advertised we will be travelling by coach and Eurotunnel, free time in Boulogne for lunch (own arrangements, not included in price), then shopping at Cité Europe on return.

The coach company is called Buzzlines Travel, please check their terms and conditions at www.enroute.co.uk/terms-and-conditions.asp paying special attention to the need for a valid passport and EHIC card.

Any further queries please speak to Julia H.

LONDON MEN'S CONVENTION
Saturday April 18th, 10am-5pm
At ExCel, in London's Docklands

The event this year focuses on Jesus, the Man for all Men, and seeks to encourage those attending to be men of Jesus. The main speaker is Tim Keller, pastor of Redeemer Presbyterian Church in Manhattan. He will speak on the death and resurrection of Jesus. Other talks will be given by Wes McNabb and Mike Cain on Jesus' Compassion and His Return respectively. Stuart Townend is scheduled to lead worship and there will also be a focus on the 2010 Passion for Life Mission during the day.

Online tickets: £30 plus booking fee c/o The Good Book Company, at www.christianconventions.org.uk/lmc and click on 'Booking'.
