EASTER OFFERING

The Easter Offering taken today and next week will be to support the work of the Methodist Church Fund for World Mission. Please give as you are able and use a Gift Aid envelope if you can gift aid your donation. Thank you.

FRANCE – Next Saturday, 18th April

Please note the coach will be leaving Trinity at 6.15am PROMPT. If you are not here, the coach will leave without you! We're aiming to be back in EG about 8pm. Don't forget your passports, euros/credit cards, EHIC card etc.

MEGAN K is moving to a supported living house (Small Opportunities) in Brighton/Hove on the 18th April. Her new address is in the printed edition. This is a wonderful opportunity for her to live with four other friends of similar age, she will have the chance to become more independent but have 24 hour support. Check out the website www.smallopportunities.com to find out more. Angie.

I am a Christian

Everyday Christians are finding it increasingly difficult to openly express their faith. The National Secular Society has encouraged 100,000 people to sign a certificate to debaptise themselves. It is part of a campaign to allow people to revoke their baptisms. Premier Radio are running an "I am a Christian Campaign" and are asking you, if you are a Christian, to publicly affirm your faith and declare that Jesus is relevant to your everyday life. Make your declaration today at www.premier.org.uk/premier/getinvolved/campaigns/iamachristian

CHURCH FLOWERS

Thank you to Eleanor W, Mollie W, Mary T and others who have donated today's flowers. Thank you also to the team who arrange flowers so beautifully week-by-week.

Annual Church Meeting Next Sunday, 19th April, 4.30pm

This is an opportunity for everyone to share in the vision, hopes and concerns of our church, so please join us. The meeting includes the appointment of Church Council representatives and new stewards, it lasts for about an hour and ends with a Bring and Share tea prior to evening worship. Hope to see you there. Tony S.

The Trinity New Build Fun Raisers are still hoping there are some people in the congregation who feel they can spare the time to join the committee and help with organising events and especially making applications for external funds. If so, please speak to Shane H.

TUG-O-WAR!!

Roy B is on the steering committee for the Ashurst Wood Summer Fair on 20th June (the Puppets are performing) but there is also a tug of war competition and Roy has asked if Trinity would like to enter a team. We need 8 strong/strong-ish lads/ladesses, should be great fun. Cost to enter a team is £24 or £3/person and there is a 1st prize of £80 (that would be nice for building fund!) If anyone is interested please speak to Shane or Roy.

LIGHTHOUSE MANAGER VACANCY

Light House has tried to start a new kind of Christian bookshop, a contemporary place to help equip 21st Century Christians and spiritual investigators on their journeys. Having been open for four years we now need a passionate, talented and visionary Manager to take us forward. You will ideally have some retail experience and a heart for Christian mission. Salary and hours negotiable. Apply in writing with CV, before 30th April, to Ian Wilkins, Light House, 2 Railway Approach, East Grinstead, West Sussex, RH19 1BP.
